State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, 1989 is the centennial year of the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded on the ideal of people helping people; and,

WHEREAS, Through today's volunteers that legacy lives on; and,

WHEREAS, Volunteers are able to look beyond their own needs and help, care, and give to others; and,

WHEREAS, Volunteers signify the cornerstone of a community, one who is there to give support when others may have doubts, one who sees a challenge, accepts it, and works to meet the challenge; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Centennial observance is based largely on volunteer efforts; and,

WHEREAS, It is because of volunteers that South Dakota communities have been one of the best places to live, raise families, and call home:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim 1989 as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight
